

Tim Martin
Managing Director, Northumberland Chambers

Tim has extensive experience as an arbitrator and mediator with particular expertise in the energy, oil & gas, project infrastructure and construction sectors. He has been a sole arbitrator, party appointed arbitrator, institution appointed arbitrator and tribunal chair in institutional and ad hoc arbitrations. He has also acted as counsel, expert witness and strategic advisor in the resolution of a wide range of disputes.

Tim has more than 40 years of experience as general counsel, country manager, finance director, commercial manager and economist, working in more than 50 countries on some of the largest energy projects in the world. He has wide-ranging experience in various legal systems including the common law, civil law, Shari'ah law and socialist legal systems. His business sector experience includes: energy, oil & gas, refining, petrochemicals, mining, infrastructure, construction, international trade & investment, regulatory & administrative, compliance (anti-corruption, sanctions and boycott law), and finance & banking.

Tim is a Fellow and Chartered Arbitrator of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators and is on the Distinguished Neutral Panel of the CPR (International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution), including its Energy, Oil & Gas Panel and its Construction Panel. He is a member of the London Court of International Arbitration and has been elected to the arbitrator panels of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution, the ICC International Court of Arbitration, the Singapore International Arbitration Centre, the Asian International Arbitration Centre, the Pacific International Arbitration Centre, the Bahrain Chamber of Dispute Resolution, the Saudi Center for Commercial Arbitration and the Energy Arbitrators List.

Tim was President of the Association of International Petroleum Negotiators (AIPN), a leading international petroleum organization. He was twice voted its Member of the Year and has received its President's Award and Legacy Award. He has had leadership roles in a number of other industry organizations.

Tim is Chair and Founder of the Journal of World Energy Law & Business, the leading journal on international energy and the official journal of the AIPN, which is published by Oxford University Press. He established and chairs the leading international conference on O&G disputes, which is co-sponsored by the AIPN and global arbitration institutions. Tim has spoken and published extensively on dispute resolution and energy issues throughout the world.

Peers, leading arbitration institutions and industry publications have described Tim as the "go to guy for energy disputes", "the best around for energy disputes", a "true innovator in international oil & gas law", and a "true expert in the oil & gas sector". More details on Tim and his experience can be found at his website: www.timmartin.ca.

